Minutes
Board of Selectmen
Non Public Session
Monday, January 14, 2008

Selectmen Linda Saari, Clarence Farwell, James McElroy, Bill Owens and Jon Maurer were present.

Police Dept.

Tom Goulden was present at the Selectmen's request. Linda told Tom she received a complaint about Officer Freda. He stopped a woman's son. Concord said the car wasn't registered but apparently it was. When she called Freda at the office he hung up on her. Later that night the woman noticed a flashlight shining into her yard. When she asked who it was the person wouldn't identify himself but pointed to the cruiser. Tom said when the plate was called in it was not on file. It came back as unregistered and uninspected. The next day a summons was issued for an uninspected vehicle. Tom said Freda is now at the full time academy. He will talk to him this weekend. Tom said he expects his officers to treat people with respect. Jon questioned how complaints get reported to Tom. Tom said he would prefer being told what the issue is so he can talk to the officer before coming in to speak with the Selectmen.

Tom said he got free equipment. Laptops will be installed in the cruiser tomorrow.
Minutes will be sealed.
