A new Museum pass available!

Thanks to the generous support of the Friends of the Library, we now have new passes to The Sports Museum. Located in the TD Garden in Boston, it showcases a half-mile of exhibits on "the best of the best" of Boston sports' teams and individual players. Each pass is day-specific and allows free admission for six people. Check out their website at: tdbanknorthgarden.com/sportsmuseum.

Open daily, with the exception of specific days as noted on their website.

Other Passes Available

Seven additional passes can be checked out at the library including: The Currier Museum of Art, McAuliffe-Shepard Discovery Center,

SEE Science Center, Mariposa Museum, NH Historical Soc. Museums, Seacoast Science Center and the MFA, Boston. Admission policies vary among passes; some provide free admission and others require a nominal fee. All are sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

On-going Art Show Upstairs

During April and May we are fortunate to have the art of two Nashua artists in the Community/YA Room. Come in during library hours and view

Richard Widhu's abstract paintings and George Eross's sculptures.

Both of their websites are linked to the library's for more information.

Also, for any artists out there who would enjoy sharing his/her work with the library community, please contact Debra at the library or email: debra@brookline.nh.us for more details.

New library website in development. Stay tuned for release!
