ABOUT BROOKLINE

Originally chartered on March 30, 1769 as the town of “Raby”, Brookline has been one of the fastest growing towns in the state over the past 25 years. In 1960, Brookline’s population stood at 795 and recently reached 5,200. Located in eastern Hillsborough County, Brookline has managed to retain many of the features of its rural past while benefiting from its close proximity to the shopping and employment opportunities afforded by adjacent Milford to the north and nearby Nashua to the east. Brookline is about thirty minutes from Manchester, NH and one hour from Boston.

Brookline’s schools are among the best in the state as reflected by both test scores and other rankings.

Brookline has two elementary schools which form the Brookline School District. The Richard Maghakian Memorial School (“RMMS”) has pre-school through grade 3, while Captain Samuel Douglass Academy (“CSDA”) has grades 4 through 6. Students in the Middle School (grades 7 & 8) and the High School (grades 9 through 12) attend school in Hollis and are part of the Hollis-Brookline Cooperative School District.

One hundred years ago, the shores of Lake Potanipo housed the “largest ice house under one roof in the world” with tens of thousands of tons of ice cut from the lake each year and shipped by rail to Cambridge and Somerville, Massachusetts. Though the railroad was dismantled in the 1940s, its former rail bed now provides miles of recreational trails. Lake Potanipo provides year around benefits to residents and visitors, including swimming, boating, ice fishing, snowmobiling and the town’s annual fireworks display.

Brookline is in the enviable position of having undeveloped, commercially-zoned land along Route 13, which runs through the center of town. Given its recent growth, available land, and proximity to both Massachusetts and larger NH towns and cities, Brookline chartered an Economic Development Committee (EDC) to both proactively support existing Brookline businesses and also take steps to support the addition of more businesses along the Route 13 corridor. The EDC has met monthly since 2012.

TOWN OF BROOKLINE, NEW HAMPSHIRE

SCHOOLS – SAU 41

Brookline's schools are among the best in New Hampshire as reflected by both test scores and other rankings.

Brookline has two elementary schools which form the Brookline School District. The Richard Maghakian Memorial School (RMMS) has pre-school through grade 3, while Captain Samuel Douglass Academy (CSDA) has grades 4 through 6.

Students in the Middle School (grades 7 and 8) and the High School (grades 9 through 12) attend school in Hollis and are part of the Hollis-Brookline Cooperative School District.

Our schools pride themselves on strong results on the New England Common Assessment Program (NECAP) testing. Additionally, Hollis Brookline High School was ranked #1 in New Hampshire and #399 in the United States by Newsweek Magazine in 2012. Approximately 55 percent of our high school students are taking Advance Placement classes with 75 percent passing the AP tests.

In addition to regular academics, our schools offer additional opportunities to students. Our sixth graders, for example, participate in the MATHCOUNTS competition that includes students from throughout New England. The High School also takes great pride in its FIRST Robotics Team, which was established in 2002 to promote science and technology. The team is continually one of the most competitive in the region.

The Town of Brookline takes great pride in its recycling program. Brookline does not have municipal garbage pick-up, though area businesses provide trash pick-up services.

Several designated large bins are located on the site where newspapers/magazines, corrugated cardboard, mixed paper, commingled plastics & steel, and textiles are collected and recycled. Household garbage is collected in separate compactors.

Some additional items are collected for a small fee: tires, construction debris, etc. Please, see attendants for more information.

The town also participates in an Electronic Collection program that takes place 3 or 4 times a year. Collection dates are communicated well in advance so residents know when to bring old computers, printers, microwaves, cell phones, etc. to be professionally recycled. Electronic items are accepted only during collection days.

Someone's junk can be someone's treasure! A “recycle table” area is also available for residents who want to dispose of unwanted / unneeded items that are clean and in good condition. You will be amazed to see what you might find! It is like a mini flea market!
